

More Than Meets the Eye

John Baldessari's "Crowds with Shape of Reason Missing: Example 4, 2012"

Lorna Simpson, Sophie Calle, Stephen Prina and John Baldessari are only a few of the contemporary conceptual artists participating in Barbara Krakow Gallery's intriguing new show "Clues," on view until Feb. 1. Each work is a visual veil and offers clues that encourage those examining it to delve further for its real meaning. Calle's series "Last Seen" is a tribute to a famous crime with local importance--the art theft at the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum.
